About

Meet Abraxas â A Proven Performer with True Cruising Comfort Abraxas is a Beneteau First 40.7 â one of the most popular and versatile performance yachts ever built. Designed by renowned naval architect Bruce Farr and introduced in 1997, the First 40.7 quickly gained a reputation as both a competitive racer and a capable cruiser. With over 700 built between 1997 and 2008, this model has become a favourite among serious sailors worldwide. Abraxas herself is a testament to this legacy. She has crossed oceans, having completed the ARC (Atlantic Rally for Cruisers), and has also been raced by her experienced owner. Well-maintained and in excellent condition, Abraxas recently had her keel re-bonded and continues to impress both on the racecourse and during leisurely cruises. Sailing and Performance Abraxas features slab reefing on the mainsail and a furling Genoa, offering a responsive and manageable sailing experience. She is rigged as a fractional sloop â ideal for balance, control, and performance in a variety of wind conditions. Onboard Comfort & Equipment Powered by a reliable Yanmar 3JH4-CE engine, she is equipped with: GPS plotter Electric anchor windlass Heating system Audio system The fully-fitted galley includes an oven, cooker, sink, and kitchen utensils â perfect for longer adventures or relaxed onboard meals. Accommodation Below deck, Abraxas comfortably sleeps up to 8 guests across three double cabins and two single berths in the saloon. For day sails, she is coded for up to 10 people. Her layout is both practical and welcoming, suitable for anything from offshore passages to weekend getaways.
