About

We sail a brand-new Lagoon 42 Catamaran named "Aktaia" to her limits! This entrancing spirit of the Aegean Sea will take you where no one has ever been before. Our beautiful Catamaran Yacht shares the same qualities as the Nereid whose name it carries, sailing effortlessly in the Aegean Sea searching for the most unique and magical insular treasures. Aktaia is part of the crew and along with her experienced skippers they are called by the sea and are driven by their love for the Cyclades which they proudly call Home. These partners manage to travel safely in the Cycladic sea seeking adventure and sharing their hidden discoveries with their guests which a few seamen know. The experienced skippers of Niriides Cruises along with our soulful Catamaran, Aktaia, travel together almost all year round. During the summer season they guide their guests through an island-hopping experience in the Cyclades and during winter they spend their time increasing their sailing skills and searching idyllic locations accessible only by sea. Every rough weather is worth the challenge as the reward is priceless. Having all this knowledge accumulated and given our appetite for exploration, we invite you to come as a guest and leave as a friend on a trip where we sail the Cyclades in a totally different way. We chase endless sunsets and cosmic moons; in between, seals might play with us in magical bays and dolphins may keep us company during night sailing under the stars. We feel privileged to have witnessed the natural beauty of this region of Greece and honored to have met the people who live in the Cyclades as they are ones who make this part of the world so unique. These people are the ones from whom we are inspired to continue doing what we love by sharing what has captivated our souls with people who want to participate in this unique experience with us. We invite you to create new friends in the heart of the Cyclades with strong bonds which will last forever in your memories.
