About

Meet Aphrodite â Compact, Capable, and Full of Character Aphrodite is a Beneteau Oceanis 323, a yacht that effortlessly blends performance with comfort. Sharing the sleek lines and responsive handling of her larger Oceanis sisters, she is safe, stable, and fast â whether slicing upwind or enjoying the thrill of surfing down the waves. With her superb layout and thoughtful design, Aphrodite strikes a perfect balance between coastal cruiser and capable passage-maker. Performance & Rigging Aphrodite is rigged as a masthead sloop, with a slab-reefed mainsail and furling genoa. She also carries a storm jib for heavier conditions, offering versatility and confidence in a wide range of weather. 2025 Refit Highlights During her 2025 refit, Aphrodite received updates focused on onboard comfort and presentation, including: New interior covers New curtains throughout the cabin These updates give the interior a fresh, welcoming feel while retaining her practical and well-proven layout. Previous Upgrades & Enhancements Over recent years, Aphrodite has benefited from a series of thoughtful upgrades to improve both performance and comfort, including: Yanmar 2GM-93 engine with key panel on deck Electric anchor windlass with additional dedicated battery Colour chart plotter at the helm AIS installation Flexiteak decking in the cockpit Refreshed interior headlining and varnish work (All upgrades completed prior to the 2025 season.) Onboard Comfort & Equipment Aphrodite is well-equipped for relaxed cruising, with: Radio/CD system Onboard heating Dinghy included Accommodation Aphrodite sleeps up to six people across two double cabins and two single berths, making her an excellent choice for families or small groups looking for comfortable, capable cruising.
