About

Azahara is a beautifully presented Dufour 360 combining modern styling, responsive sailing performance, and comfortable cruising accommodation. Designed for enjoyable Solent sailing, she is equally suited to relaxed family weekends, coastal cruising with friends, or longer passages further afield. She is coded to Cat 3 which means she can go out up to 20 miles offshore. With her twin wheel cockpit, spacious deck layout, and bright contemporary interior, Azahara offers a reassuring and comfortable experience both underway and in harbour. The Dufour 360 is well known for balancing easy handling with enjoyable sailing performance, making her a popular choice for both experienced sailors and those building confidence on the water. Below deck, Azahara offers comfortable accommodation with a light and modern saloon, practical galley, and well-designed cabins providing excellent space for her size. Large hull windows and overhead hatches create a bright, airy feel throughout the yacht. Whether you are planning a weekend exploring the Solent, a trip along the South Coast, or simply time away onboard with family and friends, Azahara provides a comfortable and capable platform to enjoy your time on the water.
