About

A modern, autonomous and comfortable catamaran to explore the Corsican jewels Coconut is a latest-generation Lagoon 40, perfectly suited to cruising around Corsica. With its contemporary lines, spacious interior, and self-contained features, it combines design, performance, and comfort for an unforgettable experience at sea. Design and space on board With its 4 double cabins, a convertible saloon and 2 berths in the bow, Coconut can accommodate up to 10 people in excellent conditions. Inside, the natural light provided by the large panoramic portholes creates a warm atmosphere open to the sea. The functional galley, the friendly lounge and the well-appointed cabins allow you to fully enjoy every moment on board. The spacious teak cockpit invites you to relax in the open air, while the aft platform provides easy access to the sea for swimming or water sports. Coconut is distinguished by its fluid layout and a level of comfort that is rare for a catamaran of this size. Smooth and well-equipped navigation Thanks to its optimized hulls and balanced rigging, the Lagoon 40 ensures stable, smooth and pleasant navigation, even in rough seas. Its two 40hp Yanmar engines allow precise maneuvers in port as well as at anchor. The complete B&G electronics (plotter, autopilot, GPS, etc.) guarantee reliable navigation. Designed for autonomy, Coconut is equipped with: - Solar panels - Watermaker - Converter - Motorized dinghy for landings on land Summary Coconut is a 2024 Lagoon 40, spacious, bright and perfectly autonomous, ideal for a cruise in Corsica for 6 to 10 people. Its modern comfort and ease of navigation will appeal to both families and groups of friends.
