About

Heisenberg is a striking example of the ever-popular Grand Soleil 45, built in 2008 and presented in excellent condition. Designed with performance and comfort in mind, she features a taller rig and deeper lead keel, providing enhanced sailing capabilities and superb seakeeping whether cruising coastal waters or heading offshore. She underwent a substantial refit in 2023, ensuring she is in top condition and ready for her next adventure. Her upgrades make her an attractive option for anyone seeking a high-quality, well-maintained yacht that delivers both reliability and performance. Below deck, Heisenberg offers a bright and spacious interior with well-crafted joinery, generous accommodation, and practical features ideal for extended cruising. Above deck, her sleek lines, wide cockpit, and well-thought-out sail handling systems make her a pleasure to sail short-handed or with a crew. Equally suited to relaxed family cruising or more competitive sailing, Heisenberg is a versatile, capable, and elegant yacht that combines Italian style with solid build quality â a true sailorâ s choice.
