About

"A Masterpiece of Southeast Asian Craftsmanship" Welcome aboard Maha Bhetra, a 90-foot luxury traditional Thai-crafted motor yacht that epitomizes the elegance of Southeast Asian design, combined with the modern comforts you'd expect on a world-class charter. Designed by Ed Tuttle, the acclaimed architect behind Aman resorts, Maha Bhetra offers a unique charter experience that seamlessly blends ancient Thai craftsmanship with contemporary sophistication. Originally crafted to showcase the beauty of Thailand's rich heritage, Maha Bhetra boasts a timeless charm, enhanced by a spacious open-plan teak saloon on the top deck and three palatial double cabins below. Its robust wooden hull allows for smooth sailing through the scenic waters of the Andaman Sea, making it ideal for both day trips and extended overnight charters. After years of providing unforgettable experiences, Maha Bhetra now graces the shores of Phuket, known as the "Pearl of the Andaman". This vessel is perfect for hosting intimate gatherings of family and friends, offering a serene escape where every moment is crafted to leave a lasting impression.
