About

Excess 11 â Mara'amu (4 cabins 2 bathrooms) Launched in October 2023 and arriving in Tahiti in March 2024, Mara'amu is an Excess 11 catamaran designed for comfortable cruising, adventure, and unforgettable moments in the lagoons and islands of French Polynesia. Combining modern performance with a light and spacious interior, she is the perfect catamaran for discovering Polynesia in style and comfort. This 4-cabin, 2-bathroom version comfortably accommodates guests in bright double cabins with large beds (1.8x2m). One of the cabins would be reserved for the crew. The yacht also features a large, fully equipped galley ideal for life onboard, whether enjoying fresh local cuisine at anchor or sharing sunset dinners after a day exploring the islands. Optional paid extras include stand-up paddleboards, fishing equipment, Starlink communication, code zero sail, and one-way charters, allowing you to start your cruise in one island and finish in another. Built for both sailing pleasure and remote island exploration, Maraâ amu can take you to the most secluded corners of the archipelago. Spend your days relaxing on deserted beaches, snorkeling in crystal-clear lagoons, discovering world-class diving sites, or enjoying some of the best surf breaks French Polynesia has to offer. Whether sailing between islands or anchoring in a turquoise lagoon under the stars, Maraâ amu offers the perfect balance of comfort, adventure, and freedom for an unforgettable charter experience in French Polynesia.
