About

SUNDAY EMBARKATION and DISEMBARKATION. For weekly cruises, embarkation begins on Sunday from 10:00 PM, with an overnight stay on board; disembarkation takes place the following Sunday by 3:00 PM at the latest. Typically, the vessel departs from the port by 2:00 PM on Monday, heading out for the first swim at sea. This fully equipped sailing catamaran is ideal for a cruise defined by comfort and relaxation. It features 4 double cabins; the 2 forward cabins also include a third berth suitable for children up to 12-14 years old allowing for a total maximum capacity of 8 adults and 2 children. There are 4 bathrooms, each with a shower, one for every cabin. Despite its 12-meter length, this catamaran offers the kind of space and flybridge typically found on much larger vessels. The CatSpace is the perfect companion for experiencing the thrill of sailing through the stunning landscapes of the Costa Smeralda and southern Corsica, as you are carried silently by the wind toward bays with unique, vibrant waters. An experienced skipper will be on board to handle all the logistics of embarkation and disembarkation, ensuring you enjoy complete relaxation and peace of mind throughout your voyage always with careful regard for weather conditions. A small security deposit is required to cover any potential damage on board (excluding damage that might occur during navigation). The rental agreement includes the services of a skipper. Requesting a quote via the platform is the best way to begin your experience.
