About

THE BOAT Aboard the Lagoon 55, every detail has been designed to offer pure luxury and well-being. The exclusive design of its spaces creates an elegant, welcoming atmosphere â the feeling of being in a true floating villa. The spacious aft cockpit flows seamlessly into the interior living area, forming a single open space for lunches under the open sky or quiet relaxation. The flybridge hosts a panoramic lounge with a 360° view, perfect for socializing or simply enjoying the sun in complete tranquillity. Its interiors, bathed in natural light through large panoramic windows, create open, airy spaces where the Mediterranean becomes part of the experience. The open-plan kitchen merges with the aft cockpit, offering a vast, harmonious lounge suspended between sky and sea. The four double cabins with private bathrooms are true floating suites, designed for those who value privacy without giving up conviviality. Every detail has been conceived to offer discreet comfort, understated luxury, and flawless functionality. With the Lagoon 55, every outdoor area is designed to celebrate the art of living at sea. The panoramic flybridge is a genuine rooftop lounge â a privileged viewpoint with soft seating, wide sunbeds, and a central helm station, ideal for sailing with a glass of wine in hand. At the bow, the wide nets stretched between the hulls become the ultimate symbol of relaxation, a place to pause time and enjoy the rhythm of sun, sea, and wind. The elegant and spacious aft cockpit is designed as a true terrace over the water: shaded by day, enchanting at sunset, and the beating heart of convivial life on board. THE ISLANDS Sailing by catamaran along western Sicily means discovering a sea of extraordinary beauty, where unspoiled islands and charming coastal destinations coexist in perfect balance. The Aegadian Islands, one of the largest protected marine areas in Europe, are renowned for their crystal-clear waters, vibrant seabeds, and landscapes that feel timeless. Favignana, Levanzo, and Marettimo rise from the Mediterranean like natural gems. Emerald coves, hidden caves, rugged coastlines, and small harbors with enduring charm define each island. Favignana offers a refined balance between lively energy and natural beauty. Levanzo enchants with its quiet, authentic atmosphere. Marettimo captivates with wilder landscapes, dramatic cliffs, and a sense of true exclusivity. The journey also extends along the coast, enriching the itinerary with iconic destinations of western Sicily. Scopello charms visitors with its historic tuna fishery and sea stacks that reflect in crystalline waters. Castellammare del Golfo stands out for its natural harbor and understated elegance. San Vito Lo Capo welcomes you with its golden beaches and bright Mediterranean spirit. A thoughtfully designed itinerary that blends sea, nature, and culture, offering a new and refined way to experience Sicily. You will define the itinerary together with our expert skipper, who will guide you in choosing the ideal route, always in full respect of weather conditions and seasonal characteristics, to ensure a safe and smooth sailing experience.
