About

Aboard the Lagoon 60 Sofia, every detail is a celebration of refinement, serenity, and the art of slow, elegant travel. This outstanding catamaran, among the most coveted new entries in the world of luxury yachting, offers the perfect setting for a week of exclusive cruising along the enchanting coastlines of Sardinia and Corse. Its contemporary lines are gracefully paired with generous, open spaces designed with understated sophistication. The flybridge features a panoramic lounge where time unfolds at its own pace, while the aft cockpit opens onto an alfresco dining area ideal for elegant dinners bathed in golden sunsets. The fully equipped galley, located in the hull, ensures absolute discretion and tranquility, while the outdoor grill invites relaxed, convivial moments with the sea as your backdrop. The interiors are bathed in natural light and appointed with timeless, minimalist elegance, hosting en suite cabins that offer a seamless blend of comfort, privacy, and refined ambiance. Onboard, a discreet and professional crew of three, Captain, Hostess, and private Chef, will cater to your every need, delivering a bespoke service that is as intuitive as it is unobtrusive. Sofia is fully equipped with every imaginable amenity: air conditioning throughout, high-speed Wi-Fi, a premium sound system, watermaker, a high-performance tender, and carefully selected water toys. Every element is curated to offer an experience of seamless luxury. Choosing Sofia means embracing a journey without compromise, where the crystalline waters of the Costa Smeralda, the serene bays of Southern Corse, and the hidden jewels of the Maddalena Archipelago become your private playground. All from the comfort of what is not merely a yacht, but a floating residence designed for those who expect nothing but the finest.
