About

Set sail in comfort and performance aboard the Dufour 375 Grand Large This sailboat elegantly combines comfort, easy handling, and excellent sailing performance. True to the Dufour spirit, it's perfectly suited for short-handed sailing or family cruising.

Its generous interior offers a warm and functional space that comfortably accommodates up to six people. A well-maintained, ready-to-sail yacht Owned by an experienced sailor, this boat is meticulously cared for and equipped with premium features: 10-inch chartplotter at both helm stations, full-batten mainsail with three reefing points (two from the cockpit, one manual), asymmetric spinnaker on a sock with a bowsprit, removable inner forestay for staysail, Webasto heating system, TV, microwave... and much more.

Uncommon on a boat this size, its ample storage space makes life on board more enjoyable and ideal for extended cruising. With its AIS transceiver, you can sail safely, even far from shore. A seaworthy and reassuring sailing experience The Dufour 375 Grand Large is fast and stable, even in light winds. It stays balanced under heel and performs exceptionally well on a close reach. Its high freeboard and smooth helm response inspire confidence, whether you're coastal cruising with family or setting off on more ambitious offshore passages. A sailboat designed to fully enjoy the sea Reliable, seaworthy, and versatile, this Dufour 375 is built for those who want to sail with peace of mind. Whether you're heading out for a weekend getaway or a longer cruise, you'll enjoy every moment aboard.
