About

The smallest sailboat on Croatian charter market The Beneteau First 21.7, available for charter in Split, Croatia, is a remarkable sailboat ideal for both week-long excursions and day trips exploring the Central Adriatic islands. This compact yet versatile vessel offers the performance and safety of a larger yacht, thanks to its heavily ballasted cast iron swing keel and successful hull design. Designed to be a fast cruiser/racer, the Beneteau First 21.7 also caters to families and small groups, comfortably accommodating up to four people in its open-plan interior. The layout includes a double V berth forward and two single berths, along with a small galley equipped with a single burner cooker. Additionally, the boat features an electrically driven cockpit shower, a mobile cockpit table, and an optional chemical toilet and autopilot. Sailing enthusiasts will appreciate the boat's rig and sail setup, which includes a battened mainsail, furling jib, and an asymmetric spinnaker. The vessel is easily managed. Its setup ensures excellent handling and performance whether racing or cruising. On deck, the Beneteau First 21.7 is well-appointed with essential equipment such as a stainless steel pulpit, stanchions, lifelines, and a sea ladder. Additional features include an anchor locker, mooring cleats, winches and safety gear, ensuring a secure and enjoyable sailing experience. Powering the boat is a 2021 Tohatsu 5HP, 4-stroke outboard engine, connected to a large fuel reservoir under the cockpit bench, ensuring reliable performance. The boat's hull and deck, combined with foam buoyancy at the bow and stern, guarantee unsinkability. Chartering the Beneteau First 21.7 in Split offers a unique opportunity to explore beautiful Central Adriatic islands. Whether you are a seasoned sailor or a family looking for a fun and educational sailing experience, this boat provides the perfect blend of comfort, performance, and adventure.
